

Adirondack Futures Workshop

imagine six different,
divergent futures
for the Park —
25 years from now.

Don't miss this exciting opportunity to explore the future of the Adirondack Park with other community residents in the Champlain Valley region. Weigh in on what you think is important to promote in the Park, what opportunities and challenges we might face, and how we can work together to create a better future. Everyone welcome, no registration fee.

Workshop leaders Dave Mason and Jim Herman have led these acclaimed future scenario workshops in Long Lake, Keene Valley, Lake Placid and Old Forge. They launched ADK Futures to stimulate new, creative, thinking about the challenges and opportunities ahead for residents of the Adirondack Park. Dave and Jim are retired strategy consultants who live in Keene, NY.
